Blackheads—big ones or little ones—oft ones or hard ones—on any part of the body, so quick by a simple method that just dissolves them. To do this get about two onness of powdered necoxin from your druggist—sprinkle a little on a hot, wet sponan—rub over the blackheads briskly for a few seconds—and wash off. You'll worder where the blackheads have gone. The powdered neroxin and the hot water have just dissolved them. Pinching and squeening blackheads have gone them open and unsightly—and unless the blackheads are big and actit they will not come out, while the dimple application of neroxin and water dissolves the n right out, leaving the skin soft and the pores in their natural condition. You can get powdered peroxin at any drug store and if you are troubled with these unsightly blemishes you should certainly try this simple method—advertisement.

TO SAVE EYES

Is the Object of This Free Prescription

—Try It it Your Eyes Give

You Trouble.

Thousands of people suffer from eye frombles because they do not know what to do. They know some good home remedy for every other minor silment, but none for their eye troubles. They neglect their eyes, because the trouble is not sufficient to drive them to an eye specialist, who would, anyway, charge them a heavy fee. As a last resurt they go to an optician or to the five and tencent store, and oftentimes get glasses that they do not need, or which, after being used two or three months, do their eyes more injury than good. Here is a simple prescription that every one should use:

I ounce Water.

Use three or four times a day and hathe the eyes. This prescription and the simple Optona system keeps the eyes clean, sharpens the vision and girlsty overcomes infiammation and irritation; weak, watery, overworked, tired eyes and other similar troubles are greatly benefited and Itentimes cored by its use. I any reports show that westers of ginssen have discarded them acter a few weeks use. It is nood for the dyes and contains no ingredient which would injure the most sensitive eves of an infant or the aged. Kelly & Pollard or any druggist can fill this prescription promptly. Try it and know for once what real eye comfort is—Advertisement.

Their Married Life

Helen and Warren Go by Boat to a Summer Resort. (Copyright, 1914, International News Service.)

ARREN was almost asleep in the upper berift before fielen was ready to turn out the light in their stateroom. She loved to travel, but was always factifions, so it took har some time to prepare for bed. She washed now that she indressed slowly and hung her traveling suit carofully on a hook, with her shirtwalst—a dark blue chifton one—beside it. Long after she was ready for sleep there were several little things to tend to; a button ind dropped from her pump as she had taken it off, and she atopped to saw it on, knowing that everything would be rushed in the morning; and she was just closing her traveling has when warren growled sleepily:

"What on earth are you doing?"

"Doar, I'm so sorry, I thought you had failen asleep long aga," and Helen, conscience stricken at keeping the light furning right in Warren's eyes, turned it off.
